Play "bullying is still fun?"

The play was about bullying. It took place on August 23, 2011.

It was about that bullying can be fun.

There were three actors, two of them played two characters.

It went like this: there were two bullies Nikki and Alfred. They bullied Herbert because he was a little thick.

Nikki was bullied by the teacher when he was dressed up as her aunt.

Then she came to the conclusion that bullying is not funny. She became friends with Herbert again and they ended falling in love...

So everything ended still good.

Greetings Delano and Freija.

Ps: so do not tease!!!

Anders zijn is niet gek!
